

Progressed Horoscopes [Trump, Bill Wrobel, etc.]

[paper commenced Thursday, November 30, 2017 1:17 pm PST]

Being in-between film music projects, I spontaneously decided to focus on my current and progressed (future) charts based on my verified birth chart data:

July 1, 1950, Syracuse, New York, 2:22 pm EDT.

In the chart images following, the natal chart is always shown as the inner circle chart, whereas the outer circle depicts the progressed (Secondary Progressions technique in astrology, or Day-for-a-Year) chart in relation to that birth chart. For instance, immediately below is the image of my progressed chart for Saturday, February 24, 2018:

This date happens to be the start of a two-day weekend event--the "Max Steiner Symposium : Man & Myth" at CSULB (Cal State University at Long Beach). I discussed this conference in my latest Blog #59 and also my "Nature of Max Steiner's Music" paper for this new update for my FilmScoreRundowns original site here dated late November 2017. I plan to quickly finish this astrology paper and add it to this same update to my site. My intent is show interested readers how I approach a progressed chart reading, my standard modus operandi. I will be the guinea pig or subject, although I was tempted to focus exclusively on Donald Trump's progressed charts! : ).....but I'll delineate on Trump & the United States just briefly now....

<http://abcnews.go.com/US/page?id=13248168>

Jamaica, New York is a neighborhood in Queens where Trump was born....

On election day (chart immediately above), Trump's progressed Sun (key to the drive to do something bigger in life, ego, passion, drive for fame/power) was prominently conjunct his Ascendant (powerful angle contact tied to action & personal identity, doing what he wants in his own way) suggesting personal prominence & honor (Sun) at that two-year period in his life. Progressed Sun moves a degree a year (same for the progressed Midheaven or MC). Keeping to a strict one degree orb for secondary progressions, Trump's Sun started the one degree orb applying to his Ascendant (29 degrees Leo 58 minutes) at 28 Leo 58 in mid-July 2015. Leo rising can often say, "I am born to be King." He announced his candidacy for President just a month earlier on June 16, 2015. His progressed Sun was exactly on his Ascendant (entering the 1st house) on July 25, 2016. The Sun's one degree strict orb left (separation degree for about a year) at 0 Virgo 58 in early August 2017. The conjunction is a highly significant period, in this case almost like a New Chapter in the life conjunct the Ascendant. Sun traditionally suggests, as an analogy, the King being throned, empowered, a brand new phase tied to personal action, identity & power (in this case, as President of the United States, supposedly the most powerful man in the world with a unique finger potentially on the nuclear button). Sun on the Ascendant is his time to shine, to be center stage, to project his personal power & creativity out in the world and get a response back.

Ironically, at the same time, we see progressed Midheaven (MC) in Leo conjunct progressed Saturn in Leo, key to karma & the Executive (who is supposed to carry out the Law, not make his personal will into Law (like a King). That is the conflict between the Sun-Leo principle highlighted and the Saturn-Capricorn principle that is equally highlighted in Trump's chart in this general period. Saturn in the sign of Leo automatically suggests that universal theme regarding the use of power & creativity. MC started the one-degree orb to progressed Saturn on Election day 2016, curiously enough. It becomes exact at 2 Leo 48 in the 12th house of "self-undoing" (traditionally speaking). It leaves that one-degree orb March 2019. It is conceivable that if Trump tries too much to be "King" (Sun-Leo principle) instead of "Executive" (Saturn principle), the so-called karmic consequences may be a fall. Or it may suggest at least being blocked, inhibited or intimidated (say, for instance, by the Mueller investigations) or a need for realism & reality-testing in order to deal successfully with the rules-of-the game, and to handle the great responsibilities of the position. On the extreme negative edge is the potential for impeachment (for Trump's personal perspective as POTUS) if he obstructed justice, but actually it is war that is the unacceptable potential---a war that would result in the multitude of deaths in the Korean peninsula and perhaps even Japan....

[As a side note, my own progressed Midheaven was conjunct natal Saturn in May 2000 when I purchased my first home (and where I still reside now as I write here). Saturn happens to rule my 4th house of home in the sign of Capricorn, so an important home/status change was indicated in 199-2000! My down-payment was in July or August 1999. The house needed to still be built. It was not ready for move-in until late May 2000. I accelerated my 15 year mortgage and paid off the house in 13 years. A year or two after the mortgage-free residence occurred, I happily retired after 30 years at the U S Postal Service.]

Now: If, however, Trump judiciously carries out the Law to the letter, works hard & realistically, then the Presidency can prove to be a gainful position with hard-earned credit as a highly productive authority figure (Saturn) and as a powerful Leader (Sun involved). For good or woe, he will irregardless be reaping the results of his own actions, his reputation and status in the world being on the line. As I believe the Bible stated, "There is today set before you good and evil, life and death - choose thou"...as well as... "By their fruits ye shall know them." It is "karmic" in the sense of simply meeting one's own true character and its inner dynamics. There are many probabilities, so "Choose Thou." Make each day count. Build a better life.

Trump's progressed Moon will be exactly conjunct natal Pluto in Leo in the 12th house on January 24, 2018 (in effect starting a month earlier as the Moon applies to that conjunction). It will be quincunx (150 degree separative angle) natal Pallas in the 5th house (asteroid tied to politics) exact on February 19, 2018, and the Moon will be conjunct progressed Pluto exact on March 16, 2018. Negatively Pluto-Scorpio-8th house can involve concealment, deception, secrecy, manipulation, "you owe me" tactics. Nobody can guess details of what might happen but it seems to suggest to me that hidden things (water focus of Pluto & 12th house) and potential "garbage" will be unearthed & revealed at that general period in the winter and early spring. Perhaps this involves the Robert Mueller/DOJ special investigations probe? We shall see! As is indicated in the current cultural shift regarding sexual scandals in entertainment/news/politics arenas (Harvey Weinstein/Matt Lauer/John Conyers/Roy Moore, etc.) being exposed, there are plenty of unsavory activities going on beneath the surface! : )....

The current Aries Ingress chart (see image immediately below) based for Washington, D.C. 2017 suggests what the year-long mood of the country might be.

Faith and ultimate values are again highlighted in this Aries Ingress chart with Neptune in Pisces rising (only two degrees from the Ascendant). Negatively this is classic for scandals (sexual, Russian collusion, etc.) and the donning of masks (pretending to be something or someone that actually you are not). Note this period the catch-phrase of "fake news"--the inability to access what is real or truthful (or not). In terms of humor, it is suggestive of the old saying, "Are you going to believe me or your lying eyes!" Deception and illusion are often emphasized. If positively expressed, then this can indeed be a healing period once the masks are unmasked; a period of self-sacrifice to truly serve all (poor & rich, Democrat or Republican) and be a channel for the good, the true & the beautiful. But if fear & defensiveness & ego & secrecy & hawk-talk is emphasized, then it can well mean war (North Korea), inevitable financial collapse, whatever.

Anyway, let's not digress any further on potentially unsavory current events charts, and go back to my own savory progressed charts! : )....[P.S. Friday, December 1] : more on Trump later since there is Breaking News developing.....

[Back to Thursday]: The February 24, 2018 progressed chart (Max Steiner Symposium event that weekend, by the way) is not particularly impressive. Moon rules my Cancer 10th house of status in the world. The progressed Moon is at 16 degrees of Cancer exactly in the 9th house of higher educative (and can loosely rule conferences such as this). Moon is square progressed Juno conjunct Neptune in Libra in the idealistic 12th house (9th-Sagittarius house is also idealism & high standards). The stress square aspect suggests in these idealism houses a potential conflict of goals & values, a differing approach, a misalignment of some sort. Perhaps my ideas of how to do such a conference is out-of-step with the ideas of the organizers. We shall see! : )! Cancer-Libra squares are normally not a big deal because both want closeness or partnership of some sort. Libra suggests a mutual give & take approach, modifications, readjustments, compromise. Cancer suggests caring & sharing for the good or best of the event, a "family" feeling--although, as we all know, families are comprised of quite distinct personalities with often very different needs & wants! If I knew the precise time when the event officially starts, then I could've constructed a chart--but it is too early to know such details. The conference is still in its planning stages until at least the end of December.

As a side note, remember than progressed Moon aspects only last roughly two months for a strict one-degree orb (applying and separating) whereas, as noted earlier, progressed Sun aspects last two years.

My wife & I just found out a few days ago that an event we love to attend every year (that usually happens in February) just happens to be occurring on that Saturday. I don't want to disappoint her by saying that the Symposium that day is more important (besides, I enjoy that yearly event too!) than her, than being with her there. So I know now that we won't be going to the Steiner Symposium that Saturday morning or afternoon. If there is something happening in the evening, maybe we can go (but doubt it). It's actually a week-long series of events but the big day, it turns out, is that Saturday. Progressed Mercury in retrograde is quincunx progressed Jupiter, so a timing issue is indicated--a conflict in planning. Normally one cannot attend two different events at the same time (unless they happen to be next door to each other)! Retrograde Mercury traditionally suggests issues regarding communication and initial agreements or conscious expectations. It would not be an ideal period to give a talk or presentation, for instance. This applies to my progressed chart, not to the Symposium itself (since Mercury will not be retrograde then). Although then Mercury will be conjunct Neptune in Pisces moderately square Mars in Sagittarius, so this might suggest some confusion or diffusion and changes of plans--yet still good for music-related areas and general idealistic creativity. Depending on the timing and (not recommended) guessing of details, rain may be an issue as well with the water emphasis involved. We shall see. Venus in Pisces at that event is also terrific for music-related events (despite that exact square to Mars). Perhaps there will be some sort of passive/comfort versus assertive/aggressive/active dynamic with the Venus square Mars in mutable signs---basically not a big deal because mutables mean a mental focus, lots of variety and change, communication. Maybe it is a doing-your-own-thing-in-your-own-way dynamic (Mars) trying to adjust to a get-along-together dynamic (Venus). So it may be a mixture of busyness (fire & Mars) and yet the urge to relax & just enjoy the show (Venus & entertainment focus of Pisces). Pisces is associated with films. Jupiter in Scorpio is widely & nicely trine that Venus in Pisces so that suggests harmony & gain in the overall proceedings, a potentially "memorable" events (water involved or lasting emotional memory). If the event is video-taped (I believe that is planned), then the memory will have lasting tangible expression as well.

-Progressed Moon at 17 Cancer 36 in the 9th house will be trine progressed Mars in the 1st house at 17 Scorpio 36 exact on April 12, 2018. Both the 1st and 9th (and 5th) houses are fire-active houses. So this might be a busy emotional productive period of a harmonious nature, good for doing a creative project or two. No angles are involved. Big events in the life usually involve the angles. Normally for important events and activities the angles (natal & progressed, birth & local) must be there because angles are cardinal power points--action & change & outer events in the life. So the simple angle-less Moon trine Mars in water signs and fire houses (emotional drive, feelings, intensity) is there but it may not produce any event per se. It may just indicate a mood of busyness, an urge to do things, be engaged emotionally in some way.

Immediately below is the progressed chart for progressed Sun conjunct natal Saturn in the sign of Virgo in the 11th house:

This is a progressed Sun aspect so it was in effect about a year before as it applied slowly to the conjunction and then separate from the exact conjunction for a year within the strict one degree orb. Although there is no angle involved at 14 degrees (such as a conjunction or square or trine or quincunx), it is nevertheless an interesting power aspect. It is fire(Sun)-earth (Saturn) so potentially quite a productive period, ambitious, work-oriented, important in some way. It's like fire-earth lava, and you better get out of the way of even slow-moving but impactful lava! And I was indeed quite busy with creative projects this last year both with music and also astrology-related activities. Physically I was busy with HOA labor and also installing sod in my backyard just a few weeks ago. The motto is, If you want to do something worth doing, then do it well. Do it the best you can now. It can be a strong power-drive urge to reach the top in some way, so be careful to know that the end does not always justify the means. Moderation may be in order to curb undue determination, being careful not to step on sensitive toes or other people's rights & feelings. Sometimes this aspect may involve an issue with loving & being loved, with a lesson (Saturn) in romance, or tied to kids & procreation (Sun) in some way. Mundanely it may involve promotion (Sun) at one work or career (Saturn) or, negatively, the work may not match one's expectations or ambitions (falls short in some way). There are any of many ways this Sun-Saturn principle can manifest. For instance, when Max Steiner passed away, his progressed Sun was conjunct Saturn. His body gave out, some sort of depression on his innate bodily vitality (Sun).

Next image is progressed Midheaven (MC) conjunct progressed Mercury 1 Libra 43 in the 12th house exact June 8, 2018 (but in effect a year earlier). Being acutely busy in artistic and mental affairs (Libra, 12th house) is highlighted. This involves music, writing, communications, and so on. And this is quite true since I've been quite active in these areas (especially music-related activities). I've done plenty of YouTube videos, wrote original music, wrote arrangements of other peoples' music, and so on.

Basically it is an official dissemination of ideas and creative projects. The aspect is still applying so I suspect I'll be quite mentally busy the rest of the year. No mental vacation for me! : )

Next is progressed Moon conjunct progressed Vertex at 22 Cancer in the 9th house exactly applied October 31, 2018 (but in effect the month before & month after). The Vertex is like another Descendant or 7th house cusp power point that involves partnerships, marriage, important interactions (like business) with others, crucial encounters. Moon is a cardinal planet involving closeness & family & home & the general public. My Moon happens to rule the cardinal 10th house of career & status in the world. Moon ruling a natal chart with Cancer rising (Ascendant) would be especially important as an indicator in progressed charts since the Moon moves fastest (roughly a degree per month). My wife happens to have a Cancer-rising chart so she seems particularly more influenced by the swaying of the progressed Moon. Often a progressed Moon conjunct the Descendant (7th house cusp) or Vertex might indicate marriage or otherwise some other form of relationship commitment or important involvement. When my mother died, progressed Moon was conjunct Saturn in my chart. Saturn happens to rule Capricorn in the 4th house of mother (see chart below).

Of course I am married now, so I won't expect a second concurrent wife! I astrologically arranged the marriage date & time for November 5, 1982 in the afternoon for maximum harmony for that general period in 1982. After 35 years, so far so good! : )

But this might mean a new association tied to mental activities & ideals (9th house) or travel (again 9th house) or a foreigner might come and visit & even stay at our house for awhile. Some sort of emotional bond or family feeling. I may simply get involved deeply again into film music research such as at UCLA. I was thinking yesterday I'd like to study more Max Steiner scores for RKO (held at UCLA) such as Death of A Scoundrel. I like a lot of that music right from the get-go with than taxi ride of the Yvonne DeCarlo character to the scoundrel's house (played by debonair George Sanders). I also want to check out The Fountain (1934) and Lost Patrol (1934) both of which had music that was prominently self-borrowed in later movies such as Gone With the Wind and Casablanca.

Then progressed Moon will conjunct natal Midheaven on December 27, 2018. This might indicate some sort of at least a minor change in status regarding home and/or work but it is only a single temporary (two-month) aspect. If there happened to be a network of aspects tied to that 26 degrees, then it might b more indicative of an important change.

Here below is a Master List of my future progressed aspects that I compiled this morning because I will not be focusing intently on all of them:

https://s2.postimg.org/pbk1vzqpl/Master\_List\_Bill\_s\_chart\_progressions.jpg

For instance, next in line is progressed Juno (the marriage asteroid) conjunct progressed Neptune in the 12th idealism house exact July 6, 2019. However, this was a slowly moving asteroid that lasted several years, so it just suggests the ideal of a reasonably idealistic & happy association, making the best of situations, trying to be harmonious & giving & generous (Libra tied to Neptune), and still be your own unique person since Juno in my chart co-rules (along with Venus) my Libra-signed First house of personal action and self-identity.

Next on August 2, 2021 progressed Moon will conjunct Venus in zero Virgo--a nice, benign harmony aspect but not particularly important. Good for pleasure & closeness & personal security and perhaps artistic work expression (Virgo rules work & doing a good job for the sake of doing a good job in its details).

By the way, you might note in my Master List that I include the "Local Chart" horoscopes because I do not delineate the natal chart but also the local chart where I live now (in Southern California). If you happen to still be living in the city where you were born, then that would not be necessary. But I moved thousands of miles away from central New York across to the West Coast, so the angles will be appreciably changed. My local Ascendant, for example, is here in Virgo, whereas my natal or birthplace Ascendant is 22 Libra 7. For instance, my local progressed Midheaven at 22 Leo was conjunct local antivertex (xx or Ax, like another Ascendant) exact August 30, 2017. This is an important double angle contact suggesting a strong status change in personal action in the creative/musical area (Leo in the 12th house). Potentially it can mean a dramatic change since Leo-Pisces mixtures are dramatic, but that was not so much for me--just a renewed stronger creative thrust in my activities (writing music, papers, etc). I was particularly on a single-minded focus of Max Steiner-related work activities this summer and fall, stimulated by news in late July of the Max Steiner Symposium. I really wanted to get down to working to finally produce a lot of creative works tied to Steiner (my four videos of Steiner, papers, etc.).

This local chart aspect connects to the natal chart Sun conjunct Saturn--both are highly productive-themed aspects. Note that the non-angle (planetary aspects only) interactions will still be the same for the local chart. Moon, for instance, will still be at 5 Aquarius 19 just as in the natal chart (but in the 5th house instead of the natal 4th house). The only changes are the ones connected to the new angles like the Ascendant-IC-Descendant-Midheaven. The timings for these interactions will be just or almost just as important as the natal chart angles.

OK. Back to the natal chart progressions, exact on September 27, 2021, progressed Vertex (like a 7th house cusp tied to relationships) will be conjunct natal Midheaven at 26 Cancer 33. This is again a double-angle interaction that could signal a new spiral of activity or minor chapter in the life, some sort of potential status change tied to partnership or a contract or ??? It could mean a new development or twist in the marriage partnership, or a general change in another relationship or official method of expression. It is potentially an important status change in a relationship, similar in principle to any 7-10 contact like Saturn on the Descendant or Venus on the Midheaven, etc. We shall see. A theme is to make room for both a partnership and work/career/projects, or two people are working closely together towards a unified goal, or merge equality with power, and so on. So the 7-10 mixture says, "Are we really going to be equals or is one person going to be daddy or boss and have the power?" Also it can be the issue of "Are we going to put our attention and energy in the relationship or in the career?" You can, say, be married to the career or one's personal projects and ignore the wants & needs of the partner. But if you can learn to share the power and make time for the relationship as well as to the personal projects/career, then you've got it made. The chart is immediately below:

Next is progressed MC at 5 Libra 4 exactly trine natal Venus in the 8th at 5 Gemini 4 on November 18, 2021 (but in effect the year before & year after). Then on February 24, 2022 that progressed Midheaven will edge to the exact harmonious trine to natal Moon in the 4th house in 4 Aquarius 19. So we have an excellent Grand Air trine in water houses--potential for lots of creative security & mental activity. This should be part of what is euphemistically called the "Golden Years" of retirement! : )....Intellectual activity expressing out from a secure framework. Good period to relate to others easily, to be accepting & tolerant, to communicate successfully & productively. Trines in water houses and involving water-planet Moon often mean a basic inner faith at the unconscious level, being taken care of.

There may be a temporary bump in the road, so to speak, or potential emotional insecurity (or added responsibilities or work) around July 26, 2022 when progressed Moon conjunct natal Saturn at 14 Virgo.

On February 13, 2023, that Moon will progressed to progressed Saturn, so the same principle of double-security planets together, work & home, perhaps insecurity of some sort, learning to cope with a new home problem or issue, feeling "down" somewhat, doldrums, low phase, experiencing a cold or flu whatever. May involve mom in some charts (my mom died during that aspect long ago) since Moon rules mother or unconditional role model parent. I might need to remind myself to watch funny movies and tv shows during that period! But three months later on May 14, 2023 progressed Moon will conjunct natal Juno, the partnership asteroid. This should be potentially a very good & interesting period tied to marriage or some other partnership or long-term friendship. It will be trine my 4th house cusp or IC (tied to home/family security) so it might indeed be an event or some sort. It may involve close friends since the 11th house is involved. We shall see. Then that progressed Moon will eventually conjunct progressed Juno exact on November 26, 2024 (same meaning but then in the idealism/artistic/healing-helping 12th house).

On September 24, 2022, progressed Mars at 20 Scorpio 34 will start the one degree orb conjunction applying to natal antiverter, and it will be principle or 1-1 connection that indicates being on the go, very busy, into physical activity & sports perhaps, asserting self-will to do what you really want to do and not compromise with anyone!

Skipping a few minor aspects, we come to March 6, 2024 when progressed Moon (that rules my Midheaven or 10th house of status in the world) will conjunct progressed Midheaven (MC) in the 12th house and will quincunx (150 degree separative aspect) natal Jupiter in Pisces in the 5th house. I suspect some sort of potential outer world change of some sort, news from family perhaps. That's not atypical of hearing about a death in the family, for instance. We shall see. Here is that chart image:

https://s2.postimg.org/uyl07i0p5/2024-3-6\_Bill\_s\_chart\_p\_Moon\_conjunct\_p\_MC.jpg

Progressed Moon will conjunct the Ascendant and enter the First house on March 17, 2025 signifying a potential change of status again (Moon ruling my 10th house) or some sort of change in personal action with the 1st house involved, getting emotionally (Moon) involved in something new or pioneering or independent. Or it may simply mean a domestic home (Moon) issue.

On exactly April 15, 2025, progressed MC (Midheaven) will conjunct natal Mars in Libra in the 12th house. See chart image immediately below:

Mars is accentuated officially here in terms of status or work in the world so it may indicate a high-energy period, doing my own thing in my own way, being especially independent (or selfish), being argumentative, telling people (Libra) or mate or authority figures (MC) off! I may be getting plenty of projects down in those two years. It can conceivably mean an operation with Mars involved, getting cut, or an accident, or a fire or whatever if energies are suppressed and then vented off in some destructive manner (or simply a form of corrective surgery).

[end session for the night at 10:06 pm. Time for bed! ]

[Friday, December 1, 2017 at 6:30am, PST]:

Big Breaking News this morning: Mike Flynn, one of Trump's right-hand men, will be copping a guilty plea for lying to the FBI about Russia. This is a serious charge. It is a felony. Each count of lying means five years in jail. Ostensibly he made a deal to save his son from big jail time too, plus he probably made a plea agreement to lessen his own charges against him. Mueller definitely got up the food chain in implicating the inner circle of the White House. Who is going to be nailed next (Trump's son, son-in-law Kushner, or ???), we shall see. Plus there is developing news that Donald Trump himself tried to influence GOP top men handling the Senate & House investigations to somehow hurry or obstruct the proceedings. Stay tuned.

Very dark shadow cast over this day for the Trump White House. Trump made a big mistake hiring General Flynn (although he was warned not to do so--including then-sitting President Obama). Sally Yates also warned Trump (she was later fired). Making false statements to the FBI is perhaps the most elemental No-No. Yet here is Flynn, then running "National Security" for the country as special counsel, lying to the FBI. This is not just "forgetting" to fill out a form properly. Flynn uttered outright lies, made denials. But the FBI "had the goods" on him, and Flynn finally made a plea denial. Flynn's incentive now is to "sing" as loudly and convincingly as he can to Mueller in order to lessen jail time for himself and his son, and maybe (in good conscience?) in order to finally "do the right thing." We are a nation of laws and we cannot have officials who deliberately undermine and obstruct that process. But the likely assessment is that the White House and Trump's base will probably now "circle the wagon" and protect Trump, that right or wrong, Trump is President and their man, that he is he right when he says Mueller is conducting a "witch hunt" (same applies logically to Roy Moore's supporters in Alabama). Even if Trump pardoned Flynn as early as today, Flynn will still be required to testify under oath in the Senate & House committees. A Trump pardon will not spare Trump from Flynn's damaging testimony under oath. If Flynn lies then again (ignoring his plea deal with Mueller or then says "I don't recall")) then that will be more counts of lying charged against him (and huge jail time). Obviously Trump failed to keep his campaign promise that he would get "only the best" in his inner circle.....

[7:10 am] : Apparently Flynn will appear in federal court in twenty minutes to plead guilty. Pandora's Box will be opening, and we will eventually be learning over the course of the next weeks & months a lot of unsavory things of what has been going on in secrecy. Ironic that Flynn during the campaign yelled about Hillary Clinton to "lock her up!" about a private email server she had (that was legal, by the way) but now look at where he is. Bottom line is that he is going to be a convicted felon. He will be sentenced much later (months from now), and that sentencing is dependent upon how much he is cooperating with the prosecutors from this day forward. Unlike Popadopoulos, POTUS cannot claim that Flynn was a "low level person." He was indeed a high level inner circle man, so I will be curious how the White House will respond to the news (no official word yet).

[7:23 am --10:23 am Washington D.C]: Flynn and his lead lawyer just walked into federal court. They did not answer any of the questions from the chorus of reporters....Stock market is tanking too....

At any rate, stay tuned for more news. Meanwhile, let's get back to the various upcoming progressed charts of a far less interesting personality this morning.....me..... :)

-On October 13, 2026 (when I am 76 years old), progressed Vertex will enter the sign of Leo for about the next 43 years (I doubt I will be alive at 119 to witness it!). This is simply a subtle change. Vertex previously changed to the sign of Cancer on Oct 17, 1985 early on in my first & only marriage. Cancer suggests wanting closeness & stability, emotional stability in the primary relationship with everything else secondary far down the totem pool of involvement. The Leo may add more fiery extrovert flair to the approach of partnerships, more general creativity & risk-taking, more excitement & variety, maybe an increased need for strokes & affection, or an attraction to colorful partnerships that are also creative.

-Progressed Sun will exactly conjunct natal Juno at 25 Virgo 42 in the 11th house on December 17, 2029, in effect the year before and year after within the one degree strict orb for progressions. This suggests some sort of enlargement of activity in the area of partnership, making them bigger & more important in the life. Some sort of creative bond that suggests commitment. By its own nature, Sun alone is more romance & fun & procreation, whereas Juno (like Venus & the sign of Libra) is more a lasting relationship, making it official (like a marriage certificate) or moving in together long-term, sharing of properties and resources together (tying in Scorpio as well). Of course this may simply mean deepening an already existing partnership, or making it even more creative & interesting as you two unfold together (getting ambitious on mutual projects, extended vacations, etc).

-Exactly on August 22, 2031 progressed MC will conjunct natal Neptune at 14 Libra 35 in the natural Pisces house (12th house). Once again, this was in effect about a year earlier as Midheaven applies to the conjunction and about a year later as it separates within the strict one degree orb. This development should really symbolize my musical-artistic expression on a high or idealistic level. Perhaps I will be at my creative best then, most productive in terms of writing music, striving for the highest potential of expression as my present abilities can get me, being creatively inspired, and so on. It may also involve the spiritual & helping-healing parts of my life. I may get heavy into the mystical life, doing more astrology readings as a ministerial function, whatever. We shall see. Nobody can guess the details but we can elaborate on the themes, and the principal theme is the Neptune focus on creating & appreciating beauty/art and/or giving to the world in some sort of service for the good and/or delving more into the spiritual/religious life, or (negatively expressed) trying to escape the world via booze or drugs, putting on the rose-colored glasses, escapism such as sleeping too much or sitting in front of the television, or psychosis, or somehow being a victim/martyr. Usually Libra-Pisces or 7-12 mixtures want things harmonious & comfortable!

https://s2.postimg.org/6nbnjn5tl/2031-8-22\_Bill\_s\_chart\_p\_MC\_conjunct\_natal\_Neptune.jpg

Then almost two years later on July 8, 2033 is when that progressed Midheaven (MC) conjuncts progressed Neptune. So for that whole four year period I will be under that next phase of my development (Neptunian). This could be the best part of my retirement, the most consequential in terms of my spiritual & artistic development. That's why I strive to keep in shape & in good health and not get into excessive habits. I am 5 foot 11 inches and weigh about 155 pounds or less (often edging towards 150). I used to weigh 145 pounds when I was a late teenager but doubt if I will reach & sustain that level (but possible). I've seen lots of men my age and even a lot younger who let themselves go, getting overweight and indulging in poor eating habits. I do lots of physical work such as HOA gardening, walking, bicycling. I drink beer & wine in moderation (most days! : ) and do not ever take drugs (including weed). I do not eat beef & chicken, focus on fruits & vegetables, avoid tap water. I eat raw almonds every day (an Edgar Cayce suggestion) as a prevention (not a cure) so that I do not get cancer. So I want to be in excellent relative health at age 80 when that Neptune period starts.

-On May 15, 2036 progressed Moon in Pisces in the 5th house will be opposite natal Juno and square progressed Ascendant (an angle), so perhaps this will signify a possible or likely partnership change or separation. Progressed Letter One (like antivertex/Ascendant/Mars) indicate likely changes in personal actions and its consequences in interactions with others.

-On March 26, 2038, progressed Mercury will finally go direct, no longer retrograde. It went retrograde late September, 2015. Of course I do not agree with the old traditions that retrogrades are bad or inhibiting. I perceive retrogrades as showing more individuality, even more centered into being himself. "I am myself. Take it or leave it. I am going to be myself no matter what." It is kind of like my videos that I offered to the Max Steiner Symposium organizers. In effect it says, "I designed them as stand-alone-self-explanatory presentations. I do not want an interruptive show & stop & explain presentation. Take it or leave it." Wink....I doubt if they'll take it since musicological conferences by its nature tend to routinely "talk about" something instead of simply presenting the material as an entertaining yet educational presentation. I believe in less focus on the presenter and far more focus on the presentation materials. So retrogrades may be more introverted but also more creative in expression, more individualistic. "If you like it, fine; if you don't like it, take a hike." They draw from their own inner inspiration, going in and drawing out from their own unique vision of creative expression. So there may be some sort of delay in the process before the final expression but it's worth the wait. It's like Beethoven mulling over a note or phrase, making adjustments until the perfect expression is reached to his satisfaction.

-Another biggie progression will be May 1, 2039 when progressed Midheaven (MC) conjuncts natal Ascendant (1st house cusp). Immediately below is that chart image:

-On June 21, 2040 progressed antivertex at 9 Aquarius 19 in the 4th house will quincunx natal Sun in the 9th that is also in that very long-term conjunction to Uranus. Well, expect the unexpected with this aspect! Changes are electric in the air during that period for 2 1/2 to 3 years. Sudden & surprising developments, originality, accentuated individuality. I'll have to watch my step and make sure I don't get into an accident like climbing a tall ladder or something! A very similar aspect occurs exactly on Nov 20, 2048 when I am 98 years old in my local chart (if I still live here in Los Angeles County, as I expect). Then progressed Ascendant in the 3rd house in 9 Sagittarius will quincunx that Sun-Uranus conjunction in Cancer in the 10th house (not the 9th house like my natal chart). See images below:

https://s2.postimg.org/if447xxgp/2040-6-21\_Bill\_s\_chart\_p\_antivertex\_quincunx\_natal\_Sun\_p\_Uranu.jpg

Mars substitutes the antivertex but both are similar Letter One principles--identity & action, physical body & vitality. The local chart is still into the freedom aspect since we have the Sagittarius sign (freedom signs are Aries-Sagittarius-Aquarius) but the area of involvement is more mental since the 3rd-Mercury house is involved.

Pretty much my basic nature is freedom & independence & the new & the different anyway because natal Moon is in Aquarius quincunx that Uranus. Uranus rules Aquarius in the modern terminology. Plus very slow-moving Uranus started to conjunct natal Sun since 2004, so the Uranian vibes have been getting stronger & stronger each successive year!

-On May 4, 2047 progress Midheaven will enter the water sign of Scorpio. Again this is a subtle overtone but it suggests a deeper focus inward or a turning in quality, processing & digesting all I've done up to that point. If I am still alive then at age 97, then I don't to live another 97 years! : )....Many people usually don't make it past the 90 year mark thereabout because at age 90 to 93 (give or take a year) all people's Sun will progress ninety degrees. Progressed Sun will square natal Sun, a 90 degree stress or conflict angle that signifies a vitality-life issue (Sun-fire). A square is the potential for friction, tension, conflict or crisis.

Mine will occur November 5, 2043 when I am 93 years old (in effect the year before & year after). Progressed Sun will be in the 12th water house at 9 Libra 19 square the Sun in a water sign (Cancer). Usually water is involved with death, finishing, end of a chapter, processing for the next chapter (next step in our evolution that is no longer physical-world based). However, the general aspects for that period are rather good, not stressful at all. In fact, progressed Sun will conjunct natal Mars exact the year earlier (but still in effect in 2043) and Sun-Mars conjunctions tend to indicate increased vitality & activity. If the energies are blocked, then maybe it can indicate low vitality and health problems. Usually Sun-Mars trines and conjunctions show lots of rejuvenation because this is a double-fire combination of planets. Usually there is an intense ambitious drive then, especially if in earth signs (steamroller combination).

-Exact on March 11, 2049 progressed Sun will conjunct natal Neptune, and then exact on progressed Neptune on September 20, 2051. The second time will also show a nice sextile (harmonious or opportunity aspect of 60 degrees) to Pluto in the 10th (a water planet) and trine progressed antiverter in the 4th water house. So Neptune, 12th house, Pluto, 4th house--water everywhere. This could indicate a natural finishing up process, letting go, a final turning in! : )....

-If not then, then on April 18, 2052 we have progressed Moon on progressed Sun (a New Moon aspect) at 17 Libra 39 signifying a whole new chapter in the life (whether overt or subtle but starting then). The New Moon occurs in the final house of the horoscope, the 12th traditionally ruled by Pisces & Neptune (and Jupiter as co-ruler). It represents new beginnings or "being born again" (birth or entry into the non-physical realm). With natal Venus in the 8th water house trine Moon in the 4th, it might indicate a peaceful passing in bed. See image of the New Moon chart immediately below:

https://s2.postimg.org/jb5717ou1/2052-4-18\_Bill\_s\_chart\_NEW\_MOON\_in\_Libra\_in\_12th.jpg

Dr. Zip Dobyns, my astrology teacher, discussed this:

" ZIP: I consider the angles the most important for events. The New Moon cycle is not necessarily going to have a dramatic event at the start. It may be just later the person looks back and sees it was really a new beginning.

In my own case, my New Moon cycle was when I started studying astrology. My marriage broke up & I started studying astrology. Well, the study of astrology was at the time nothing, you know. There was a class offered in the spiritualist church I started attending. At the time I had no notion it was going to mean anything in my life at all. I was just curious. Yet it was very clearly marked in all charts. And of course the marriage break-up was a big thing that ended that phase of my life. In just over a year Mark was born, my youngest child. My marriage broke up & all three other children & I had New Moons! Four of us had New Moons all within a matter of a few months—that's progressed Moon reaching progressed Sun, which is the start of a new cycle. So it was a dramatic indication of a whole new life for all of us.

Now: It isn't always that dramatic but it generally does mark a fairly important new chapter in the life. There's often a sense of unsettledness about the period just before & also the period just starting the new cycle. It's a 30-year cycle, one of many cycles, but it is an important one because it's the two lights. And very often in the last of the old cycle the person will be tying up all kinds of loose ends & doing a lot of exploring, tasting, testing, reaching out, experimenting, trying to look for the thing that's going to mark this new cycle. And during the initial phase of the new cycle also there will still be a lot of that exploratory feeling frequently until they get settled into whatever it is they're committed to." [end quote]

Now: The previous New Moon in my progressed chart will be November 17, 2022. This will occur at 18 Virgo 48 in the 11th house. I am stoked about this because in that general period I will have the Grand Air Trine of progressed Midheaven to natal Venus & Mars. As stated earlier, it could potentially be a golden period for me. The Virgo sign for the New Moon suggests a very tangible & productive undertone for the next 30 years, doing a job well and that it is worth doing. The 11th house suggest doing something new & different & inventive that involves new friends perhaps, social causes, astrology, etc. My progressed local Midheaven enters the sign of Virgo too on October 30, 2025, so this just reinforces that Virgo workaholic tendency & attention to details & craftsmanship.

[11:53 am]: Sources now reporting that Jared Kushner is now implicated as that "very senior member" who directed Flynn to engage in criminal exposure (Logan Act prohibits a private citizen to negotiate for the United States) before he was sworn in January 2017 regarding the December 22 U.N. resolution tied to Israel. This is getting very close to President Trump because Trump is father-in-law to Kushner (who is married to Trump's daughter). Aiding & abetting, plotting...This may be the obvious beginning of the end for the Trump presidency...especially if Flynn and Kushner state under oath that Trump knew all about this. Remember this date, December 1, 2017. It will be historic. Even the lowliest intern in government knows you can't lie to the FBI without serious consequence, and yet Flynn lied in late January to them. It would've been better if he simply refused to answer any questions. Commentators on tv are questioning Flynn's sanity as well....]

Back to my progressed charts....

-On May 14, 2053 (if I'm still around! : ), progressed Ascendant in the sign of Capricorn will be opposite natal Sun conjunct progressed Uranus. Potential sudden changes.

-On October 31, 2054 progressed MC will be trine natal Jupiter in Pisces in the 5th. Jupiter is often shown in charts of letting go, wrapping things up, moving away (Jupiter). Midheaven shows official status in the world. Normally MC-Jupiter trines suggest gain or promise of gain, searching for the next level of development, find Truth, understanding, revelation.

-On January 31, 2055 progressed antiverter in Aquarius will be opposite progressed Pluto (water house and water planet). Potential surgery, transformation, financial matters, and so on.

-On October 15, 2056 progressed Sun will significantly conjunct natal Ascendant, and also quincunx natal Vertex in the 8th water house. Time to shine or seeing the light! Normally it can mean an ambitious expansion of personal action. Remember that Trump was elected with this aspect. It doesn't mean everything is pink & rosy & wonderful. You have to look at the total picture or network of aspects in the chart to determine what should be factored in for a correct assessment of the situation. Usually it is a very mixed picture in regards to a progressed chart. You cannot take one solitary aspect out of context. Much of what happens is dependent on the previous framework or foundation in your life. What probabilities that occur from an aspect or series of aspects depends on what road (probability) to have taken up to that point. I will not become President of the United States at age 106 just because I happen to have progressed Sun on my Ascendant! : )....

In the local chart on February 6, 2052 progressed Midheaven in Virgo will conjunct progressed Saturn and conjunct natal Juno. Looks serious (important) & consequential to me. I bought my first home when I had another MC-Saturn conjunction. That was a very important development. As noted much earlier, Trump is now undergoing a MC-Saturn conjunction that will prove eventful & consequential of a serious nature. Major & important & change of status. Usually with Saturn involved, one's awareness of the limits of personal will & power is emphasized in some way.

-What looks promising is that progressed Descendant (7th house cusp) conjunct natal Sun in the 9th house on May 16, 2053. Potential creative expansion, honor, recognition.

This is similar to progressed Sun conjunct the Descendant. Attracts attention & applause & being a "star." Art & beauty & grace & creativity are shined upon. It's like a celebration just as I celebrate Steiner's music by making those videos. I could be dead long before 2053 but in this material-physical world that timing might be when my creativity is focused on in some way (whether by private research or public displays). It is a kind of feeling like a Renaissance--what was old is now new again, refreshed, made anew again.

Usually there will be major aspects for death (physical death, death of a marriage, etc), particularly oppositions & quincunxes because you are separating & leaving something behind (like a physical body! : )....But you can also in the mix see harmonious aspects such as with Jupiter because you are "moving on" to the new phase of your development, perhaps to something better & higher. Jupiter is release; Neptune is peace/acceptance. And water (signs/planets/houses) is important because you are closing the chapter and letting go, ready for the next chapter or birth (symbolized by fire). Pluto often involves letting go of a partner or close associate.

Astrology seen thru progressions can show in great detail the TIMINGS of events or conditions in life as long as the precise minute of birth is given BUT remember that it predicts nothing. That is, the TIMINGS are predictable but not the events. Astrology is not (or should not be) fatalistic, like it "has to happen" or "happen this way." That's because there is the important factor of Free Will. The chart unfolds with its timings but HOW it unfolds is up to the person and the probabilities he has set up already thru choices and habits. Life is not preordained or laid out like a script. While the overall themes are "built in" so to speak, life itself is very spontaneous, and any of many paths can be chosen. The framework and its timings are set overall but events are not predestined. So progressions show the timings when you will face issues symbolized in the horoscope. They show up when you are meant to unfold a facet of your character & what path or choices you take for that further development. The really important timings in effect can show pivotal "turning points" in the life or an intersection with probabilities where you have to choose this road or path, or that road, and so on.

The old saying is "It's time has not yet come." Well, progressions show the timings of likely important events or circumstances. Ideally you want the most favorable or constructive probability during that period of change. Events are not predestined. There are probable events that are dependent on your beliefs & expectations and what you have already built up for you life at this point. For example, if you are a drug addict, you are not going to magically wake up next morning and be free of the addiction. We all have to pay the consequences of our actions. Habits die hard. Hopefully we learn from our mistakes and move on to something better that has true value fulfillment.

Progressions show the timing when you must face issues. They show when you are to unfold a facet of your character into new, progressed development. Remember that progressed & natal aspects are not inherently good or bad. It is always what you do with them, how you decide to unfold your nature (consciously or unconsciously). Ideally we are blessed with the power & freedom to create what we concentrate upon. We create our personal reality through our thoughts, beliefs, expectations and habits.

Choose wisely! : )

OK. That should do it for this quick & spontaneous paper. I will proof-read it, edit, convert to a pdf and send it to my website person to put it as an update for my site.

Thank you for reading.
